

Titel:	Interdisciplinary Competition and Regulation Seminar
Responsible teachers:	Jens-Uwe Franck, Volker Nocke
Date:	Monday, 5.15 pm	Location:	L9, 1-2, Room No 0.02
Form and usability of the module:	Compulsory Course for M.Sc. Economics (Specialization Competition and Regulation Economics) and Master in Competition and Regulation Law (LL.M.) (3rd semester)	Hours per week:	2
Teaching Method:	Seminar (two hours per week)
Prerequisites:	For Law students: Lecture in European Competition Law; Comparative Competition Law (recommended) For Economics students: E505
Literature:	Recommendations will be given in the introductory session
Goals and contents:	In this seminar economics and law students will form mixed teams to analyze competition cases as well as regulatory proposals from a law and economics perspective. These case teams will take the perspective of the different parties involved and present their line of argument in class.		